A black and white photograph of a large, mature pine tree with a thick, gnarled trunk and dense, dark foliage. The tree is the central focus, with its branches spreading out in various directions. In the background, a dense forest of thinner trees is visible, creating a layered effect. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the bark and the needles.

ENFIELD HIGH SCHOOL
Thompsonville, Connecticut

From Roots to Twigs

PREFACE

In the leaves of this, our classbook, we have recorded an unforgettable period in the process of our growth. We have attempted to extract the pith of our years at Enfield High and set it forth for all to view.

Four years ago, we were carefully embedded in the fertile soil of our school. As pliable twigs we were constantly and conscientiously cared for by skilled gardeners — our faculty and administration. We were intermittently subjected to stormy frustrations and weathering responsibilities, which we survived — the stronger for the encounter. Our many roots developed — reaching deep to absorb the many nutrients around us — curriculum, athletics, and organizations. Our tap root constantly concentrated on obtaining and absorbing the chief food of life — education. Through this bending, weathering, and nutritioning we developed into what we are today — straight and sturdy saplings, budding with hopes and aspirations, ready to weather the storms and droughts of life. Though we now face transplanting, our tap root — our mainstay in life — will never be severed. It will perpetually reach for that life-sustaining food — education.

Truly when this Echo, our record of growth, is consulted in our later life, the words of Alexander Pope will be verified:

" 'Tis education forms the common mind,
Just as the twig is bent, the tree's inclined."

THE ECHO

We, the Echo staff, have striven to reflect the process of the planting of the seed of knowledge, and to depict by picture and by word, the growth from the seedling to the full-grown plant. From these sprouts we have grown ever nearer to maturity as the tiny acorns develop into sturdy oaks.

From the spindly saplings, as freshmen, we have been nurtured, formed, and shaped into healthy, young vigorous trees with roots planted deep into the soil. From our participations in classes, social activities, athletic contests, and extra curricular events, we have gained those qualities that will enable us to bear fruit.

Our staff has captured the high lights of our developmental years and have recorded them in this class book for posterity.

After we have enthusiastically perused this book upon our graduation, we shall it aside, only to uncover it years hence when we shall refresh our memories of those moments we spent in being shaped into what we have become. At that time we hope that our efforts will not have been fruitless.

DEDICATION

Miss Jenny Brakel has cultivated the seed of knowledge in so many; her devotion to education has been an inspiration and a model.

To her we gratefully dedicate our class book.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

These men who labor in the vineyard of education provide the necessary tools and substance for the growth and development of the "twigs." Theirs is the monumental task of furnishing the books, buildings, supplies, administrative, instructional, and maintenance staffs, together with a definite policy of a sound educational philosophy. Meeting frequently and periodically, these men give of their time, efforts, and knowledge for the express purpose of furnishing us with the best and the most for the taxpayers' dollar. Unrewarded for the most part, their gratification must necessarily come from the satisfaction they experience when they, at the close of the school year, sit back and watch the full blossoming of their efforts in the graduation of our class.

ADMINISTRATION

Principal Harry E. Tatoian assisted by Vice-Principal, John H. Lyons, and Dean of Girls, Miss Viola Allen had the nearly impossible task of operating our overcrowded high school. The degree to which they have succeeded is evidenced by our success in satisfactorily meeting the requirements for graduation. Though the platoon system is not the best, it was expedient, and our administrators worked out a smoothly operating schedule, which though hectic at times, did, however, get the job done. Problems, such as shifting personnel, establishment of a new Drivotrainer room, and scheduling activities were all met and solved by this efficient staff.

President's Message

In our ever expanding and advancing nation, education has become an intricate part of our country's growth. Education, when introduced into the human mind, forms the ideals and the basic understandings under which we live.

As a small twig is affected by the winds, the rains, and the snows, so the human mind is affected by the types and strengths of the education it receives. The beginning education a child receives will influence his behavior and growth throughout his life. Thus, a good early education means a good citizen.

Armed with the education gained at Enfield High School, we must now take our places in our everchanging world. To our principal, our faculty, and most of all, our parents we express indebtedness for the guidance they have so conscientiously rendered. This has led us through an unmatched period of our growth — our high school years. It is to them that we dedicate our future achievements.

As we all know — "as the twig is bent, the tree's inclined."

 Second row: Michael Bromage, Donna Argenta, Valedictorian John Mokriski, Salutatorian Joan Tyler, Gary Pellegrini, Joyce Carpenter, Theodora Ulavich.

CUM LAUDE

By virtue of their earnest study and resolute endeavor thirty-six of our classmates graduated Cum Laude. This title, which is bestowed upon the upper twenty percent of the graduating class, marks the highest achievement and honor obtainable. It manifests outwardly a high degree of growth and intellectual maturity.

CLASS HISTORY

As a tree grows each year, it is marked by the addition of another ring to its trunk. So, too, we have in our high school days achieved an unmatched measure of growth. To the innermost pith of our characters, rings of physical, mental, and moral growth have been added with each succeeding year. Viewed as a whole, these rings display a cross-section of our high school life.

First Ring

Entering the doors of Enfield High School in the fall of 1956, we encountered a new and different kind of life. Our first task as freshmen was to elect the officers to lead our class. The tally was taken and Louise Gongola was elected President; Lorraine Maslanka, Vice-president; Sandra MacDonald, Secretary; and Marlene Stolz, Treasurer. To represent us in the Student Council Judith Diegoli and Joan Mahelsky were chosen.

As members of our Freshman Football Team some of our finest athletes developed the skills which have carried them on through four years of service to the Green; among them were Michael Bromage, Ralph Landry, Danny Browne, Richard Korona, Carmen Ravenola, Thomas Kwapien, Butch Fiore, Joel Olko, Joe Krzys, Kenny Criscitelli, Richard Montagna, Richard Ruggerio, Gary Pellegrini, Bill Sideravage, Artie Scudieri, Ang Lamagna, Ronnie Fortin, Gordon Robinson, Vinny Marino, Roger Dudek, Richard Zaczynski, and Howie Reynolds.

As our boys were developing skills on the football field, Kathy Clarkin, Tommilee Phillips, Sandra Taylor, Carol Gaskell, Marion Goodsell, and Barbara Seminara were developing poise and friendliness at the Y-Teens Conference held at Bard College.

Much of our class's abundant talent was brought to light in the spring at the Hi-Y Minstrel. Roberta Clark, Barbara Wheeler, Madeline Weaver, Elaine Zawistowski, Henrietta Dubish, Charlotte Sideravage, Carolyn Myott, Joyce Carpenter, Nancy Gennusa, Donna Argenta, Mary-Jane DiRosa, Susan Crombie, Joyce Lees, Judith Diegoli, Pamela Burns, Jean Grogan, Sherry DeLuca, Christine Gourlie, and Marie Martin were among those performing.

Two of our classmates received awards at graduation for their scholastic achievements. Louise Gongola received recognition for excellence in Algebra, Latin, and History, while Joan Mahelsky carried away honors in English Composition.

1957-1958

Second Ring

The election of Robert Zarcaro as President, Barbara Wheeler as Vice-president, Tommilee Phillips

as Secretary, and Ann Olschafskie as Treasurer marked the commencement of our Sophomore year. Representing us in the Student Council this year, were Judith Diegoli, Tommilee Phillips, Mary Jane DiRosa, and Kathy Boland.

Kathleen Carroll and Joyce Carpenter proved their spirit-raising ability by becoming varsity cheerleaders, while Barbara Wheeler, Bonnie Baker, and Donna Argenta became substitutes. Our Sophomore cheerleaders had something to cheer about, too, as Angelo Lamagna and Michael Toolan distinguished themselves on the basketball court for the Varsity.

The class play "Tattletale" brought into the limelight an assortment of Sophomore thespians; among them were Carmen Ravenola, Michael Bromage, Dennis Gebo, Joseph Krzys, and Pamela Huck.

At graduation Joan Mahelsky again received the English Composition Award, while Theodora Ulavich won recognition for her work in Latin.

Third Ring

As we became Juniors, we automatically inherited the maturity and sophistication attached to the classification of upper classmen. Elected as our officers were Michael Bromage, Judith Diegoli, Susan Crombie, Coralee Jones, and Tommilee Phillips.

For their outstanding performance on the gridiron, Ralph Landry and Michael Bromage were elected the co-captains of the coming year's football team. The football season was closely followed by the annual dramatic production of Enfield High School. This year's play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," found the cast dominated by Juniors, with Patricia Blaney, Charles Mokriski, Michael Bromage, and Edward Murawski playing delightful roles in the hilarious mystery-farce.

Under the supervision of Decorations Chairman, Clara Rinaldi, our auditorium underwent a delightful transformation to illuminate the theme of our first prom, "Spring Showers." Our affable hostess and host, Donna Argenta and Angelo Lamagna, were there to greet the many enthusiastic couples in attendance.

Five of our classmates — Clara Rinaldi, Gail Cygan, Patricia Blaney, Sandra MacDonald, and Charles Mokriski — represented Enfield at American International College's Model Congress in April. There they debated and voted on bills in the same manner as Congress does in Washington, while observer-alternates, Carol MacDonald and Joyce Carpenter, watched the proceedings.

Joseph Krzys distinguished himself and his Junior class in the service of the varsity baseball team. His competent fielding and consistent hitting helped the team throughout the season. Throughout the year our musicians, too, scored many hits, as Robert Zar-caro, Dennis Gebo, Richard Bigda, Ralph Landry, Madeline Weaver, and Judith Diegoli supported our orchestra, with Robert and Dennis later representing Enfield High School at the All-State Band concerts in both their Junior and Senior years.

Under the general-chairmanship of Jean Tyler, the Farewell Prom Committee presented the year's last event to the theme of "A 'Bientot.'" Hostess and Host Ann Olschafskie and Michael Toolan greeted the couples.

Awards at graduation this year went to Joanne Bellico, Patricia Blaney, Joan Mahelsky, Barbara Spanswick, and Charles Mokriski. As the year ended Patricia Blaney, Michael Bromage, and Joseph Krzys were headed for a week at the University of Connecticut for Laurel Girls' State and Nutmeg Boys' State, while Charles Mokriski was packing his bags for a seven-weeks-stay at the Loomis School to study physics under a government subsidy.

1959-1960

Fourth Ring

Our unforgettable year as Seniors got into full swing with a cupcake sale sponsored by our girls in order to raise money for our classbook. This venture was a precedent-setting success.

Elected as Student Council representatives this year were Sally Rodowicz, Barbara Wheeler, Tommilee Phillips, and Gary Pellegrini. The all-important election of the Senior Class officers was finally carried out, and Gary Pellegrini emerged as President, with Vice-President Michael Bromage, Secretary Donna Argenta, and Treasurer Jean Congrove to round out the staff.

The Football season by this time was in full swing, and Seniors Danny Browne, Lenny Lavalette, Kenny Criscitelli, Ang Lamagna, Carmen Ravenola, Ralph Fiore, Vincent Marino, Richard Korona, Gordon Robinson, and Howie Reynolds, behind the leadership of co-captains Michael Bromage and Ralph Landry, were awarded the Championship Trophy for their outstanding performance.

The cheerleaders under the leadership of Captain Donna Argenta and Co-captain Kathleen Carroll, with Seniors Joyce Carpenter, Barbara Wheeler, Bonnie Baker, Tommilee Phillips, Joanne Bellico, Nancy Gennusa, Ann Olschafskie, and Carole Sevarino, were present at all games, spurring our athletes to victory.

It was in our Senior year that our acting talent was fully developed. It came out most strikingly in our play, "The Man Who Came To Dinner," as Charles Mokriski, supported by Patricia Blaney, Linda Leaf, Josephine Sabellico, Edward Murawski, Joyce Carpenter, Michael Bromage, Gary Pellegrini, Clara Rinaldi, Robert Colozzi, and Nancy Gennusa, reached the zenith in Enfield High School's history of drama.

With Enfield Alumnus Brad Davis as disk jockey, and under the direction of co-chairmen Linda Leaf and Robert Colozzi, two record hops were given to raise money to help underwrite our classbook. Each was a success, opening the door for future classes to money-raising activities.

From a group of Senior students, including Joyce Carpenter, Janet Butterworth, Sandra MacDonald, Ralph Landry, and Gary Pellegrini, Patricia Blaney emerged as the winner of the Voice of Democracy Oratorical Contest and proceeded to the countrywide competition.

As our final prom approached, our prom committee, under the leadership of Ralph Landry, made an all-out attempt to make it an unforgettable night. Through the efforts of the decorations committee, the auditorium was miraculously transformed into a beautiful setting for "Le Bal de Noel." Our aspirations for this dance were realized as hostess and host Marion Goodsell and Danny Browne greeted the many couples upon whose memories "Le Bal de Noel" made a beautiful picture.

The Daughters of the American Revolution's good citizenship award was bestowed this year upon our outstanding classmate, Patricia Blaney; and the Home-maker of the Year title was conferred upon Jewel Golemba.

In February Patricia Blaney and Charles Mokriski appeared on television to represent the Echo staff and explain the procedure of making up a classbook. Movies taken of the whole Echo Staff in action were also shown, and fellow editors Susan Crombie, Jean and Joan Tyler, Barbara Wheeler, Tommilee Phillips, Robert Zarcaro, and Joseph Krzys had the experience of seeing themselves on television.

This last ring of our high school life is not yet complete; it is still being enlarged and rounded out. Its completion will come as each of us receives his diploma at graduation.

Throughout this cross-section are apparent the many events which have played so great a part in our growth of the last four years. Each ring is an integral part of all of us — so intertwined within our minds and bodies, that it can never be forgotten.

THE ECHOES

The Echoes, under the direction of Robert Blake, is a select group of students who gave special concerts during the Christmas season, the Spring Festival, and Commencement week. "O Holy Night," "Face of God," and "Halls of Ivy" were just a few of the many songs rendered by the Echoes. Jean Congrove, soprano, was a feature soloist.

AFRICAN HONORS GROUP

In their study of "Africa in the Modern World" the members of the History Honors Group learned to read, write, speak, and think with precision. Through individual conferences and group seminars, weekly reports and full year research papers were organized. Besides gaining knowledge of the world in general and Africa in particular, the members of the group — under the advisorship of Mr. Gross — gained valuable insight into political and international thinking. In a yearlong program marked by trips, visits by famous guest speakers, and a 210 question midyear examination, this new course got a foothold in Enfield High School and a new concept in education was successfully tested in actual practice.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The seed that was to form the present Student Council was planted in our Freshman year. During its growth into an active organization it encountered many challenging problems. The solution of these problems resulted in activities such as Dress-up Day, Clash Day, record hops, boosting of school spirit in sports, candy sales, and cooperation with various other school groups.

Like other organizations, delegates were sent to conferences where they met with delegates of other Student Councils and common problems and solutions were discussed. In November, Tommilee Phillips and Barbara Wheeler attended the convention of the Connecticut Federation of Student Councils at UConn to which some fifty schools sent representatives to discuss and exchange ideas concerning student government. Out of this meeting new ideas and techniques were learned and brought home to us.

MODEL CONGRESS

Effective speaking is an integral part of our educational growth. Through the Model Congress, and the Voice of Democracy contest several students had the opportunity to learn, not only to speak with precision but also to organize their thoughts clearly. In addition they were made acquainted with the functioning of our government and the meaning of democracy. In the local Voice of Democracy contest Pat Blaney distinguished herself by winning first place and is shown here receiving the award for the school from Commander Robert Watton.

F.F.A.

The F.F.A. is one of the oldest organizations in Enfield. Organized when this community was a predominantly agricultural town, it has survived the social changes that have occurred in recent years. Although farming as an industry is fast disappearing locally, enough enthusiasm exists to attract boys to agriculture. The F.F.A. group continue their interests throughout many projects such as dairy and tobacco farming, and poultry raising. Outstanding events this year were their participation in the Eastern States Exposition, and UConn judging competitions.

FRENCH CLUB

Further interest in France and the French language was gained by the members of the French Club. With Miss Best as advisor, students took imaginary trips to France through books, records, and movies.

Selections were read in French by some of the members; others sang French songs learned from recordings.

An outstanding feature of the club this year was an illustrated talk given by one of the members, Pam Huck, who had toured Europe and spent considerable time in France during the summer vacation.

All conversation dealing with ordinary everyday situations was held in French. This not only increased the students' knowledge of the French language but also stimulated their interest in French culture.

ALL-STATE BAND

The Enfield High School senior class was represented in the 1959 All-State Band by Dennis Gebo and Robert Zarcaro. To this annual assemblage of some of the state's finest young musicians Robert's saxophone and Dennis' clarinet made an invaluable contribution. The concert, held at Bushnell Memorial in Hartford, was enjoyed by the usual standing-room-only audience.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

During 1957 students of E.H.S. were introduced to a new organization, Junior Achievement. In this nationwide organization the students learn the functions of a business through personal experience. Companies are organized and operated by the students. These are bona fide companies which issue stock, manufacture the product, promote the merchandise, and sell the goods. At the end of the school year the companies are liquidated, the stock redeemed, and a dividend is usually paid from the profits.

Besides the business activities many social events were held among which were the Winter Wonderland Dance, and a highly appreciative Beatnik Dance.

In December the presidents of the four local companies attended a symposium held in Hartford. Among those attending were Robert Reuter, Gary Pellegrini, and Robert Colozzi.

LAMPLIGHTERS

The Lamplighters, a dramatic group, is in its second year of development. Its growth during these two years has been due to the support of not only the students, but also the faculty. Under the bending and shaping of Mr. Gross this organization has produced four excellent and profitable plays.

One of the main functions of this group is to provide apprentice training for the young seedlings of the underclass, so that they will be the sturdy trunk upon which this group may build in the coming years. To date the Lamplighters have produced "The Man Who Came To Dinner," "The Devil and Daniel Webster," and "Arsenic and Old Lace."

"THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER"

The annual Enfield High School play, "The Man Who Came To Dinner," was presented in the school auditorium on December 4, 1959. This famous comedy was heralded as one of the highlights of Enfield's dramatic accomplishments. With Charles Mokriski as the lead and Patricia Blaney, Linda Leaf, Gary Pellegrini, Josephine Sabellico, Joyce Carpenter, Edward Murawski, and Michael Bromage cast in the supporting roles, a capacity audience enjoyed this hilarious satire.

JUNIOR PROM

As we entered our auditorium on April 17, 1959, we found ourselves walking by a park of fragrant ever-green trees and lovely flowers. Angelo Lamagna and Donna Argenta were Host and Hostess of the prom, "Spring Showers." They welcomed guests amid the arboreal scene of a spring garden. The soft strains of the sweet music and the fragrance of the flowers wafted our spirits above the tree tops. 'Twas another delightful evening for our memory book.

On a snowy night — December 11, 1959 — we walked up the steps under the white glistening trees to our long awaited Senior Prom.

As we entered the door, we were greeted by a jolly Santa Claus who handed us a traditional candy cane and a gaily decorated program.

The stage had been transformed into a cheerful living room scene adorned with Christmas decorations. To the music of Eddie Abrahamson's Orchestra, we promenaded in the Grand March led by Danny Browne and Marion Goodsell. The evening ended all too soon, but it remains indelibly recorded in our memory.

Through the efforts of this group, two record hops, whose proceeds helped subsidize our classbook, were presented. Co-chairmen Linda Leaf and Robert Colozzi, aided by advisors Mrs. Fowler and Mr. Nigro, organized the extensive work which went into these occasions. Brad Davis' lively record spinning and many guest stars made both hops precedent-setting successes. Films which were taken at the dance were shown the next Saturday on Brad's television program.

Pat Blaney as editor of the class book and Mr. Nigro as advisor, made personal appearances and commented on the Echo.

OUTSTANDING SENIORS

A distinct honor was achieved by Charles Mokriski when he was selected on the basis of examination and interview to attend the Summer Science Center at the Loomis School. For seven weeks he received intensive laboratory, lecture, and experimental instruction in physics while at Loomis in an all-inclusive intellectual atmosphere.

On the basis of dependability, service, responsibility, and patriotism the students and faculty elected Patricia Blaney as the recipient of the D.A.R. "Good Citizen Award."

Pat Blaney, Mike Bromage, and Joe Krzys were selected as representatives to Laurel Girls' State and Nutmeg Boys' State. During the week spent at UConn, classes in government, parliamentary procedure, and the writing and passing of bills were the order of the day. The nights were reserved for guest speakers and recreation. This memorable week culminated in the election of the governors of both Boys' State and Girls' State. The Inaugural Ball was the social feature of the week.

Most important of all, a constitution was adopted, establishing a permanent council in Enfield for the perpetuating of Red Cross activities. Charles Mokriski became its first president.

FOOTBALL

Football has long been an important phase in the growth of our students. This year's team, rooted in a new offense, grew into a well-developed eleven which provided the school with a near perfect five and one record. The pith of the squad proved to be the Senior members, led by co-captains Mike Bromage and Bill Landry.

Assistant Coach

The Green Raiders opened their season against a favored Classical team. Seniors Ang Lamagna and Danny Browne, who scored touchdowns, led Enfield to a well deserved victory.

In the following game the Trade Beavers were humbled by our sturdy eleven, with Browne again scoring, as did Butch Fiore and Carm Ravenola; End Rich Korona added two extra points.

move. Next an undefeated Palmer team bowed to a 60 yard scamper by Lenny Lavalette, and some fine defensive work by Vin Marino and Butch Fiore, gave the Raiders their third win against no defeats.

Rough weather then confronted our undefeated team and despite staunch performances by Gordie Robinson and Biff Landry, the Green received a heartbreaking defeat at the hands of Longmeadow.

However, the Raiders sprang back straight and strong against Simsbury. Mike Bromage threw a 44-yard scoring pass to get the Green Wave moving, and Korona and Lamagna applied the finishing touches. Fiore again

THE DESTRUCTION OF SIMSBURY

(with apologies to Byron)

The Simsburians came down
like a wolf on the fold,
With its cohorts all shouting increasingly bold;
And the gleam in their eyes
was as awesome to see,
As the most violent waves of a turbulent sea.

Like the leaves of the forest
when summer is green,
That team and its coach on the bench were seen:
Like the leaves of the forest
when Autumn hath blown,
That team on the morrow lay shattered and strown.

For the Raiders of Enfield their wrath now aroused,
Took the field with a veng-
ance, a vict'ry espoused;
The teams lined up, awaited
the blow of the whistle

And away went Enfield, tackling sharp as a thistle.

And there was Fiore leading the pack,

And down went a Simsburian,
flat on his back.

Now in went Korona the passer to harass,

And time after time, incomplete fell the pass.

The Raiders took over the ball after four . . .

Lamagna broke through to register a score.

Now Bromage, his arm back
a long pass did raise,

in a bit of a daze.

O, the visitors and their followers were loud in their wail

It just couldn't be that they were quite that frail.

O, no, dear Simsburians, it was not that at all

You see, there was SPIRIT
along with the ball.

BASKETBALL

This basketball season found our team confronted by rough weather. The Raiders, however, led by Captain Mike Toolan along with fellow Seniors, Mike Bromage and Ang Lamagna, managed to weather these storms and spring back to reap the fruits of a few startling upsets.

Our first victory was against Somers. Here we outplayed the opponents with a dashing offense featuring Ang Lamagna's brilliant shooting, Mike Bromage's outstanding playmaking, and Mike Toolan's stout rebounding with competent backing from substitutes Howie Reynolds and Stan Murawski.

Against Easthampton we pulled a near upset. Although we were leading at halftime, the Red Eagles had to produce a late rally to pull the game out of the fire. Ang Lamagna and Junior, Roy Raymond, joined forces to hoop 23 points. Mike Toolan was outstanding under the boards as the Green came close in its bid for the victory.

year was provided by our own forces against Palmer. Palmer, in a hot battle for the Valley Wheel lead, was stunned by a Raider uprising, with Mike Toolan tossing 19 points. Enfield's man-to-man defense against the Blue Panthers proved to be an overwhelming success. Ang Lamagna kept Palmer's ace playmaker bottled up throughout the night with his brilliant defensive play. This, added to Enfield's exceptionally fine shooting, earned the Green a glorious victory to make the season palatable.

We then encountered an Agawam team on our home court. The Raiders quickly proceeded to out-rebound, out-hustle, and out-shoot the Brownies. This time Ang Lamagna provided the scoring punch with 17 points, while Mike Toolan controlled the backboards, for a convincing win.

All year long our team hustled, even in losing causes. Though we took our lumps and faced our blights, we never gave in. In defeat we showed our true colors — the colors of true sportsmen — the green and white of Enfield.

The main purpose of the Junior Varsity Basketball program is to prepare boys for the Varsity teams. If this year's Junior Varsity is an indication of teams to come, Enfield should have strong teams in the next few years. Our Jayvees routed every Valley Wheel team encountered, and their only two losses were at the hands of Trade in closely fought battles.

The Varsity has already felt the impact of talent from the Junior Green. Ed McCusker, from his guard position on the Jayvees, vaulted to a starting guard position on the Varsity. Terry Smith, Bob Chillson, Dennie Scudieri, Bob Licitra, and Doug Warner, present Jayvees who are also on the Varsity, could comprise a Varsity unit in any game. Juniors Joe Pych, Bob Landry, and Steve Lawrence are other products of this Jayvee unit. These are Enfield's future basketball teams, experiencing careful weathering and pruning under the watchful surveillance of Coach Lamana. Their very successful year is representative of their willingness to contribute their time, energy, and spirit for the Green and White.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball team was led in 1960 by Senior co-captains Peggy O'Neal-on and Joan Tyler. The Green wave also featured Seniors Ev Olschafskie, Jean Tyler, Helen Leary, and defensive specialist Sue Crombie.

The girls took the floor for the first time against Ludlow. Although losing, the Enfieldettes showed their high scoring ability by compiling 48 points, 35 of which belonged to Joan Tyler. Peggy O'Neal-on sparkled with her many beautiful assists, setting up easy baskets.

The Green produced their first victory against Easthampton with a well balanced attack led by the Tyler twins, Jean and Joan. The defense played an outstanding game as Sue Crombie and Ev Olschafskie pulled down rebounds and fed the forwards for the offensive thrust.

The next game found our girls absorbing a heart breaking loss to Monson, despite the fact that Joan Tyler found the range for 27 points and Helen Leary ably filled in for absent Peggy O'Neal-on.

Our girls then showed their ability to spring back in a 55-34 overwhelming victory over Palmer. Jean Tyler's 26 points along with sister Joan's 21 led the onslaught, with Peggy O'Neal-on again shining in her playmaking ability.

In Ludlow our girls outlasted their opponents in a tight contest. The staunch defensive play of Sue Crombie, Ev Olschafskie, and Junior Kathy Legienza managed to hold the opponents. Meanwhile our offense, led by Helen Leary, Peggy O'Neal-on, and Joan Tyler, providing our scoring punch, with Joan hooping for 41 points.

At the hands of Easthampton our win streak was spoiled, despite the heroic efforts of leading scorer Jean Tyler. In the Enfieldettes' next encounter with Monson, and despite a 20 point performance by Jean Tyler, the girls were set back again.

The finale of the season found our girls again springing back with an impressive win over Palmer. All Seniors shone with high-scoring Joan Tyler throwing in 23 points. Thus, through the accurate shooting, staunch defensive play, and unrelenting spirit of our girls, the season's record resulted in 4 wins and 4 losses — a very complimentary record for a girls' basketball team which was organized only two years ago.

CHEERLEADERS

The Varsity cheerleaders were led by Seniors. Donna Argenta, the chief yell leader, was backed by Joyce Carpenter, Tommilee Phillips, Ann Olschafskie, Carol Sevarino, Barbara Wheeler, Kathy Carroll, Bonnie Baker, Joanne Bellico, and Nancy Gennusa.

These girls were always able to provide our team with well needed support at both away and home games. The thrill of a tight game and an Enfield basket brought them to their feet with encouraging screams. Like all teams, ours needed the support of the fans, and the cheerleaders were able to do this for the Green courtmen.

Beside their loyal support, the cheerleaders provided a few humorous cheers to entertain the people. "Mr. Dillon" was very well liked and featured Senior girls, Joyce Carpenter and Barb Wheeler. Under the leadership of Miss Perdrizet the girls presented an Indian dance around Captain Donna Argenta during the halftime. Thus, our cheerleaders were an integral part of our Varsity athletic program—they were the pith of our school spirit.

Captain, Donna Argenta

Ann Olschatskie and Bonnie Baker congratulate Coach Perdrizet as an Enfield team chalks up another victory.

BASEBALL

This campaign found the Enfield baseballers confronted with a tough schedule, but able to meet it with a veteran team. The team itself was spirited with a "never give up" motto and a determined will to win.

Senior catcher Ralph Landry and pitcher-outfielder Gary Pellegrini comprised an outstanding battery to provide wins for the Green. Other Seniors Al Laughlan at the initial sack, Ken Criscitelli and Joe Krzys working the double play, and smooth fielding Mike Lidak at the hot corner made up the infield. The outfield showed speed and experience with power hitting Ang Lamagna in center and rifle-armed Mike Bromage in right. This outstanding Senior eight provided the spark which ignited the Raiders' furious drive in the Valley Wheel race.

This spring found the Green inaugurating a new track season with the core of the squad once again provided by the Senior class. The upper classmen and their cohorts completed a very successful season under the competent direction of Coach Lamana.

The short dashes starred our three swift sprinters: Vin Marino and Bernard Satkowski in the 220 yard dash, and Roger Dudek in the 100 yard competition. These three were assisted in their struggle for team points by members of the field aggregation, featuring the high jumping of Pete Jordt and Len Lavalette, as well as the pole vaulting of Al Hauver. The weight heavers, Al Della Rocca with his shot put, Ralph Fiore with his discus, and Lou Korecki with his javelin, rounded out the Senior competitors.

With the track team, Enfield High completed another complimentary season of sports activity. In token of their prowess on the fields and courts all members of Enfield's teams were awarded the symbol of participation — the green and white Varsity sweater.

Indications are a greater number of high school graduates are now enrolled in our colleges and universities than ever before in the history of our country. This is most encouraging, for it demonstrates a realization on the part of our youth, a desire to equip themselves better for the tasks that lie ahead.
